FIFTH SPIRITUAL WORK OF MERCY –

To forgive offences willingly. Every time we pray the 'Our Father' we say 'Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us'. Here we pray that the more we receive God's mercy the more we may learn to be merciful to others. Pope Francis hopes that this year each one of us could grow in our appreciation of the Sacrament of Confession or Reconciliation so that we can become 'Missionaries of Mercy' to others. The Holy Father writes:
'Let us place the Sacrament of Reconciliation at the centre once more in such a way that it will enable people to touch the grandeur of God's mercy with their own hands. For every penitent, it will be a source of true interior peace' [Misericordiae Vultus 17]. As God forgives us our trespasses through Confession we too can learn to forgive others who trespass against us.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

A couple had two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous. The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their town their two young sons were in some way involved. The parents were at their wits end as to what to do about their sons' behaviour. The mother had heard that the local priest had been successful in disciplining children in the past, so she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with him. The husband said, 'We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper!' The priest agreed to speak with the boys, but asked to see them individually. The 8 year old went to meet with him first. The priest sat the boy down and asked him sternly, 'Where is God?' The boy made no response, so the priest repeated the question in an even sterner tone, 'Where is God?' Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the priest raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face, 'WHERE IS GOD?' At that the boy bolted from the room and ran directly home, slamming himself in the closet. His older brother followed him into the closet and asked what had happened. The younger brother replied, 'We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it.'
