MASS IN A MOMENT

By Margaret Bick

The Sprinkling and Penitential Rites

Dying Christ destroyed our death; rising he restored our life. This is the cornerstone of our faith and the cause of our celebration. St. Paul says that we must consider ourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. The liturgy offers us two possibilities for bringing this mystery of faith into sharper focus from the very beginning of Mass: in the "Lord have mercy" we recall that God's unconditional love and mercy sent Jesus to bring us to fullness of life with God and each other; in the rite of blessing and sprinkling holy water we recall the eternal newness of the divine life we have shared since our Baptism. May almighty God continue to have mercy on us, forgive our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

A preacher trained his horse to go when he said, "Praise the Lord," and to stop when he said, "Amen." The preacher mounted the horse, said, "Praise the Lord" and went for a ride. When he wanted to stop for lunch, he said, "Amen." He took off again, saying, "Praise the Lord." The horse started going toward the edge of a cliff. The preacher got excited and said, "Whoa!" Then he remembered and said, "Amen," and the horse stopped at the edge of the cliff. The preacher was so relieved and grateful that he looked up to heaven and said, "Praise the Lord!"
